
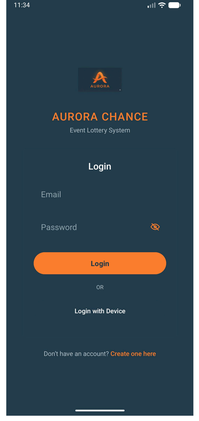
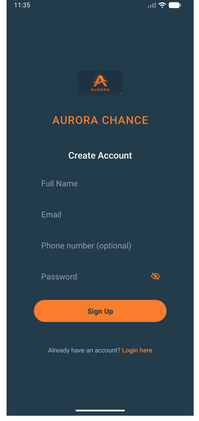
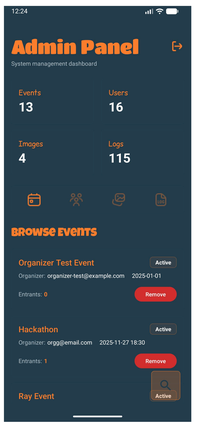
Introduction page that welcomes users and briefly explains the app's purpose, fair lottery registration for community events.



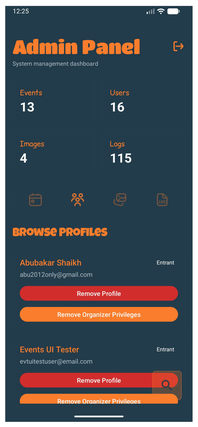
Login screen for existing users to access their account using email and password, with demo credentials provided for testing.



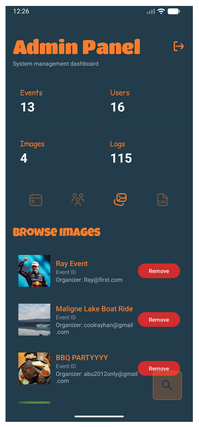
Create Account for new users by entering your name, mail and password



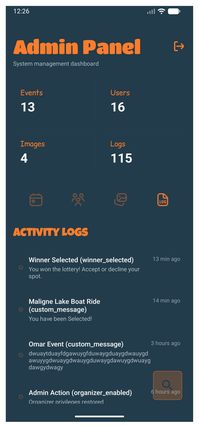
Main admin panel, shows a summary of active stats and Lists all events and gives the option to remove event if they violate any rules.



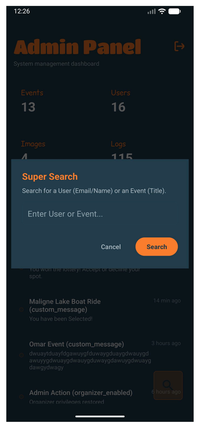
Lists user profiles with options to review or remove them from the system.

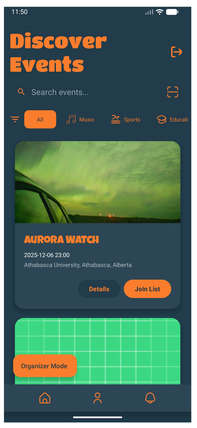


Displays uploaded event posters or images with admin options to review or delete inappropriate content.

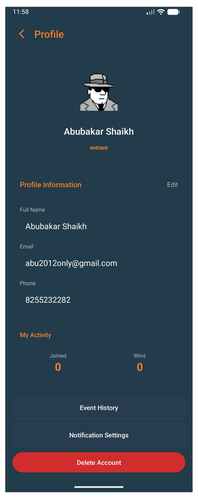


Shows system activity history- including event creation, registrations, and lottery draws for auditing transparency.

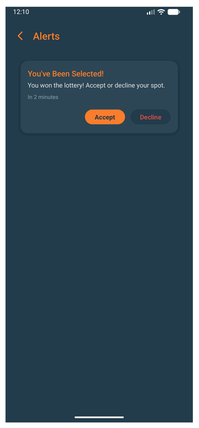




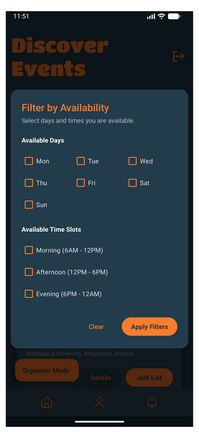
Page where entrants can browse available events, search by name, and view details or join the waiting list.



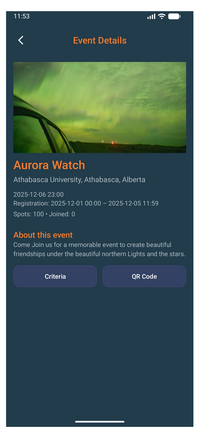
Profile screen displaying user information such as name, contact details, and event history, with options to edit or delete the account.



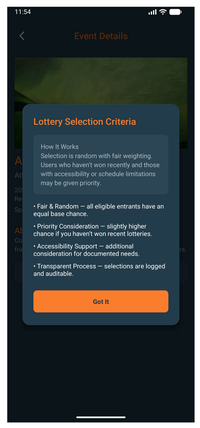
Screen listing all notifications related to lottery results, event updates, and new opportunities for entrants.



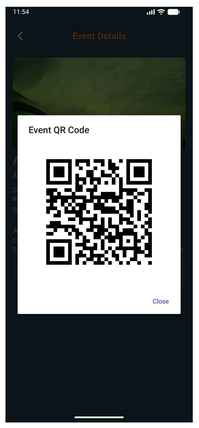
Filter the events by available days and time slots



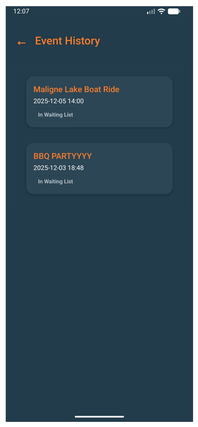
Event description page showing detailed info, location, time, and statistics about entrants and availability. There is a QR code button that displays the code for the event, and a signup button that shows up after you confirm your spot after being selected from the waiting List.



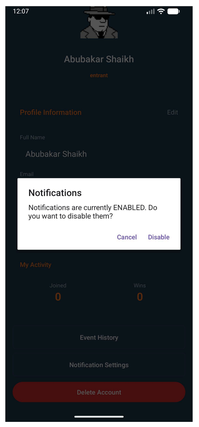
Informational screen explaining the fairness and transparency of the lottery process, including priority and accessibility considerations.



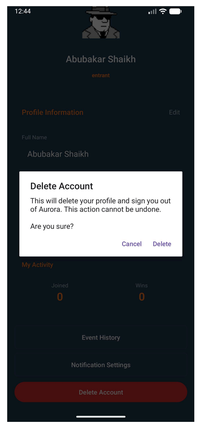
The events Unique QR Code



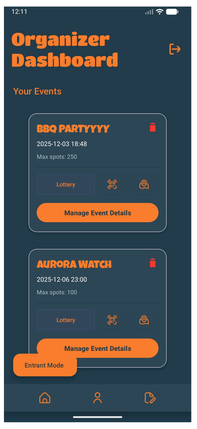
Event History page that shows your registration history, which all events were won, lost or pending



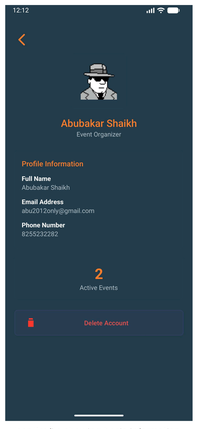
Notification Settings pop up in the Profile screen, to opt in out out of notifications from admins or organizers.



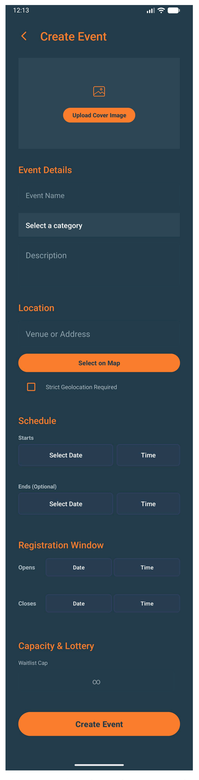
Warning pop up to ask for confirmation if you want to really delete your account.



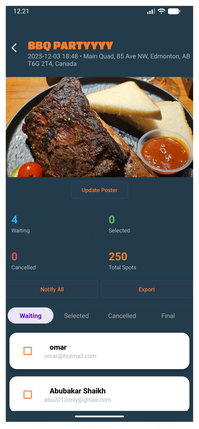
Organizer's main page showing created events, buttons that show their status and the create new event button in the bottom right in the navigation.



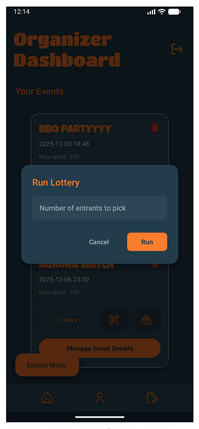
User Profile showing basic information, more detailed info and settings can be found in the profile in the events dashboard.



Allows organizers to create a new event by entering details like name, capacity, registration dates, Location, and optional image upload.

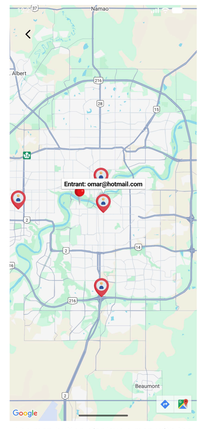


Manage Lottery displays live statistics on total entrants, selected participants, and pending responses for each event.

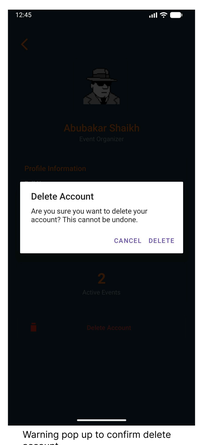


This is the run Lottery function, which choses a specified numbers of entrants randomly from the waiting list. after ran the button changes to a reroll button.

A unique QR code for each unique event



The map button displays a map with the event location (red pushpin) and all the entrants(red user markers) and the locations where they joined the waiting list from.



Warning pop up to confirm delete account.